

HIST 167: Assignment Two, Winter 2024

The Things You've Learned: An Unessay

Your second assignment is to both show me what you've understood about the history of gender and sexuality this term and add to that knowledge by doing research about a topic that interests you.

Instead of writing a paper, you'll choose a different medium to show me what you know. (The only other thing that is off limits is a slide presentation.) You could create art, food, photography, music, dance, poetry, rap, a map, a zine, a game . . . the sky is the limit. Think about what skills you have that you can bring to this assignment!

- You should propose the project that you'd like to tackle in a one-page Google doc by Monday, February 12.
- In that proposal, you should also tell me what you will create.
- You will create your project and bring it to class on Friday, March 2. You'll also submit a 3-5 page reflection that tells me what you learned by completing your project.

Remember to cite your sources in your project and/or reflection when you directly quote from someone else and when you take an idea from someone else but write it in your own words

Use the formatting in the Chicago Manual of Style. A quick guide to this style is available online here.

Remember!

Your proposal is due on Classroom on Monday, February 12 by 11.59am.

As well as working on your project outside of class, you'll work on it in class on Wednesday, February 14 and 21.

Your project and reflection are due in class on Friday, March 2.

All icons by Freepik at <http://www.flaticons.com>